Purpose and scope: define how the assistant explains scores and show generated example explanations with references.

2. Executive summary

Explanations follow a fixed structure with references to database and document sources. Four example explanations are generated from the engine's stored values.

3. Structure of an explanation

Every explanation has the same parts: result, strengths, weaknesses, risks and flags, missing information, confidence and a client-decision note. Numbers come from the scoring engine and are quoted, not recalculated. Every factual claim carries a reference.

4. Reference formats

| Reference | Use | Example |
|---|---|---|
| [DB:expected_scores/PRP-001] | Stored score, price, deadline, rating | Overall 79.3 |
| [DOC:PORT-001/FRE-001 portfolio and evidence summary] | Skill evidence and limitations | Angular verified in PRJ-001 |
| [DOC:EVA-002/...] | Method rules | Budget formula |
| [DOC:PRP-001/...] | What the proposal states | Milestone plan |

5. Wording rules

- Say 'no evidence found' instead of 'does not have the skill'.
- Say 'risk signal' instead of 'will fail'.
- State the number of reviews with every reputation statement.
- Do not use pronouns that depend on earlier sentences when several people are discussed.
- Never mention protected or irrelevant personal characteristics.

10. Template for an ineligible proposal

Proposal <ID> is not recommended because <hard constraint> exceeds the client's limit (<value> versus <limit>) [DB:...]. Its weighted score is shown for transparency only. The client can still contact the freelancer to renegotiate.

11. Template for a proposal on hold

Proposal <ID> is held pending evidence: the mandatory skill <skill> has <evidence type>. The freelancer can supply a project, test or code artifact. The weighted score is <score> if the evidence is confirmed.

12. Template for close scores

Proposals <ID1> and <ID2> differ by <x> points, which is within the uncertainty of the data. Compare them on <criterion> and the listed risks.

13. Summary of key findings

- Quote stored scores; never recalculate.
- Every factual claim has a reference.
- Use neutral wording for risks and missing evidence.
